

Emergency Preparedness and Response

The organization has established, implemented and maintained Emergency Preparedness and Response Procedure in order to identify the potential emergency situations and how to respond to such situations.

